

Sanford Brush and Palette Club, Inc.
SANFORD, NORTH CAROLINA

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

- Meetings: General membership meetings are typically held 6 times a year in January, March, May, August, September and November. Meeting details are posted on the website (sanfordbpc.org) under events and on Facebook. Announcements are also made via email about 10 days in advance. Members are encouraged to attend all meetings, functions and programs.
- Annual Dues: $45 per calendar year; dues are not prorated or refunded
Membership is free for Art Teachers who teach K-12 in the Lee County School System
- First-time Members: Those joining before September 1st are considered current year members and are eligible to enter the Annual Art Show. Those joining on or after September 1st will be unable to exhibit in the Annual Art Show but will be considered as having paid dues for the following year.
- Renewing or Returning Members: Dues are payable on or before December 1st (grace period to January 31st); those failing to pay dues by the grace period will be dropped from membership. Those renewing after the deadline will be reinstated and may enjoy all other benefits of membership except exhibiting in the Annual Art Show.
- Mailing Address: Sanford Brush & Palette Club, P.O. Box 4886, Sanford, NC 27331
- History: The Sanford Brush & Palette Club was founded in 1964 by Mrs. Elsie Jordan and a handful of members drawn together by a common interest in painting. At that time, the meetings were held around the breakfast table in Mrs. Jordan's home. In the time since then, the club was established as a non-profit corporation and the membership has grown and thrived in the community.
- Mission: To foster an interest in the visual arts through our programs, demonstrations, exhibitions and community involvement. To provide opportunities for member artists to improve skills and to display and market their artwork. To help make art a part of the lives of the adults and children in our community.
- Information: Visit our website at www.sanfordbpc.org for more information about our club. You can also find us on facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/sanfordbrushpaletteclub>.
- Newsletter: The newsletter is published periodically. Included is news about club events, our members, upcoming programs and our art exhibits.

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

- Membership Classes:
- Artist Member
 - Eligibility: An adult who lives, works or takes classes in the Lee County area (includes the areas of Sanford and Broadway which may be in an adjacent county). Public or private classes taken with a current member also qualify.
 - Annual Art Show Participation: Must be a member in good standing (dues, fees, etc. paid timely); artwork entries must be original; and must volunteer to serve in some capacity promoting, organizing or working during the show.
 - May vote and serve as an Officer, Board Member or Committee Chair.
 - Art Teacher Member
 - Eligibility: A person who actively teaches visual arts in the Lee County School System. The art teacher need not reside in Lee County but must be in position for some part of the SBPC fiscal year.
 - The Art Teacher Member has the same requirements, rights and privileges of the Artist Member.
 - Art Supporter Member
 - Eligibility: Any person, organization or business organization who wishes to actively support the SBPC and the arts in our community.
 - This member may not vote or hold office but may volunteer to serve on committees or at events.
- Board of Directors: Our Board consists of the Officers (President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer), the immediate past President, the Art Show Committee Chair and up to six (6) other At-Large Directors as elected by our members.
- Artist of the Year: Each year, one of our members is chosen to be our Artist of the Year. There will be a reception in his/her honor and a one-man/woman show of his/her artwork in June.
- Workshops: There are 1-2 workshops held each year, details will be announced in SBPC media channels (newsletter, Facebook, email blast and website). The club hopes to bring together participants and contemporary artists for an excellent educational experience. Workshops are open to members first and may be offered to the public.
- Annual Art Show: Our signature event. The Annual Art Show is usually held in late October at the Hales Center (Old Armory) on McIver Street in Sanford. This annual competition is open to eligible members. Show Rules are published annually. Media includes paintings, collage, drawing/pastels, ceramics, mixed media and 3D. Well-known artists are selected to judge the competition artwork. Ribbons are awarded at a reception the night before the show opens. There is an entry fee and a commission due on any works sold. Members may also place work in the non-competition gallery for sale.
- Galleries: The SBPC has arrangements with local business or organizations to display the artwork of eligible members. An exhibition will typically run 1 – 2 months unless otherwise specified. Members should contact the Gallery Chair to be placed on the schedule.
