

DONOR CONTRIBUTION FORM

Thank you for your interest in supporting the Sanford Brush & Palette Club (SBPC)! We are a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose primary mission is to foster an interest in the visual arts through our programs, demonstrations, exhibitions, and community involvement. Your contributions are deductible for federal income tax purposes to the full extent of the law. We sincerely ask that you become our partner and help us achieve our goals of supporting the arts in our community and the amazing artwork of our local artists. Please see the Donation Options below:

| Program  | Description   | Donation Amount   |
|--|---|---|
| General Operations                                   | Support our mission by enabling us to direct funds where they're most needed be it in operations or programs.   |   |
| Art Angels Program                                   | Help Art Teachers in our public schools give their students a great art experience.   |   |
| Scholarship Program                                  | Help provide scholarships for high school seniors & undergraduate students to continue their studies.   |   |
| John Wicker Workshop Program                         | Assist our club in hosting workshops and classes for local artists to learn new methods, styles or techniques.  |   |
